LAWYERS SHOW
TRUE DEVOTION*Baltimore Attorneys Honor the Rev. Dr. Harvey Johnson.*LONG LEGAL FIGHT RECALLED.

Grand Old Hero Who Championed Cause of Colored Men Twenty-five Years Ago Given Genuine Surprise. W. C. McCard Presents Resolutions on Behalf of Members of Local Bar.

The Rev. Dr. Harvey Johnson, who initiated and led the fight which resulted in the supreme bench of Baltimore handing down a decision in March, 1885, giving to colored lawyers the right to practice law in Baltimore and the state, was surprised by a visit from a number of members of the local bar recently.

City Councilman Harry S. Cummings was the spokesman and in a brief speech praised Dr. Johnson for his almost unpaired labors in getting the barrier against colored lawyers removed.

"Twenty-five years ago," said Mr. Cummings, "the laws of the state of Maryland prohibited the admission of a colored man to the legal profession. No matter how he may have been, the young, aspiring colored man was debarred from the labors, rewards and emoluments which the profession of the law holds out to those who are permitted to enter its ranks."

"At this crucial period colored lawyers were needed, and needed badly."

PARTIAL VIEW OF GROUP OF BALTIMORE LAWYERS, WITH DR. HARVEY JOHNSON IN CENTER.

It was the moment of all moments when the doors should be thrown wide open to those who by training and inclination were willing to stand the required test for admission to the bar.

"On the part of those who are the beneficiaries of your unselfish labors I take pleasure in presenting you this shield from the rain and storms of a handsome silk umbrella as a slight token of our appreciation for your work in blazing the path for us."

W. C. McCard read resolutions expressing the great appreciation of members of the local bar in having the way opened for them to practice their chosen professions.

Dr. Johnson in replying to the tributes told the lawyers that in the early eighties he suggested the idea of making a contest for the admission of colored men to the bar to Revs. W. M. Alexander, F. R. Williams, A. Brown, P. H. A. Braxton and J. C. Allen, the last two of whom are now dead. He told them that there would be no expense entailed upon them except what they voluntarily assumed. They told him, said Dr. Johnson, to go ahead, and he secured Attorney Alexander Hobbes to fight the case.

The nature of Charles S. Wilson, a teacher at Sunny Side, Md., and a graduate of the law school of Boston university, was used, and a favorable decision was at last got from the supreme bench, a decision which was directly the reverse of one which had been previously handed down by the court of appeals.

"It gives me a distinct pleasure," said Dr. Johnson, "to see our own men practicing law in this state, and I must say that I have never employed a white lawyer since we have had our own."

"I will keep this umbrella as a keepsake of your regard and value it more highly than if it had been a gift of great intrinsic value." Dr. Johnson concluded by saying that the Brotherhood of Liberty had nothing to do with the fight for the removal of the barrier, after which a photograph of the lawyers, with Dr. Johnson in the center of the group, was taken.

Among those present were Messrs. H. S. Cummings, W. T. McQuinn, John L. Dozier, W. Ashbie Hawkins, W. C. McCard, C. C. Fitzgerald, G. W. F. McMeekin, G. G. J. Brown, William H. Daniels, G. L. Pendleton, H. Rufus White, Ephraim Jackson, J. Wesley Parker, H. M. Burkett and U. G. Tyler.

Sermon to Patriotic Organizations. Major Martin R. Delaney circle, No. 122, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and General J. B. Switzer camp, No. 98, Sons of Veterans, assembled in large numbers at Brown chapel, A. M. E. church, Pittsburgh, on Sunday evening, May 29.

The occasion was the annual sermon of the organizations, which was preached by the Rev. Dr. W. H. H. Butler, who is himself a veteran of the civil war.

GARNETT FRESH AIR HOME.

Special Vacation Resort For Women Beautified by Improvement Club. The H. H. Garnett Fresh Air home, located at Westbury, N. Y., which was formed about twelve years ago by the Afro-American union, will be formally opened for the season on or about June 15. The home has been established for the purpose of accommodating self-supporting women and girls in search of rest from their labors, all of whom must be recommended before they are admitted.

Recently an improvement club has been organized for the purpose of beautifying the grounds of the institution. Through generous donations on Arbor day the ground was turned into a veritable fairyland.

The home contains fourteen light, large, airy rooms and is beautifully appointed. The aim of the management is to make the home self-sustaining, and to this end many entertainments have been planned for the summer season. Conspicuous among those interested in the home was the late Mrs. E. E. Williams of Westbury, with whom the idea of establishing such an institution originated.

She not only worked unceasingly for its accomplishment, but its interest was kept alive by her. The Afro-American union feels that there is no better way to perpetuate her memory than by keeping up the home which she fostered.

The officers of the union are Mrs. Annie Henry, president; Mrs. J. Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. S. E. Hill, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Nannie Jarrot, president of the board of managers.

NEW BUSINESS VENTURE.

Colored Realty Company Buys Large Acreage in Mississippi.

The Colored Realty company has recently been organized and incorporated at New Orleans with T. P. Patterson as president and J. J. Jefferson as secretary. The company has a membership of 300 and will be operated upon the co-operative plan.

The movement grew out of the desire of its members to get away from crowded city life. The company has already purchased 1,200 acres of rich yellow pine timberland in Pearl River county, Miss.

The headquarters of the company will be at Purvis, Miss., where the first buildings will be erected. Brick manufacturing will be one of the first industries to be started. The land is rich in timber and splendid for farming purposes. We wish the new enterprise abundant success. It is a move in the right direction, as co-operation is much needed among us.

CHEERING REPORTS MADE AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Brooklyn Meeting of A. M. E. Conference Was Largely Attended—Bishop W. H. Heard Speaks For Africa—Appointments.

The nineteenth annual conference of the A. M. E. church for the state of New York, recently held in Union Bethel church, Brooklyn, was an interesting event. Bishop W. J. Gaines presided. The sessions were largely attended, and a great deal of substantial work was accomplished.

Much interest was centered in the report of the finance committee, which was read by the Rev. Charles E. Wilson of Albany. The report showed receipts to that committee of $1,249.50, which was divided between the ministers on mission charges, the superannuated preachers, the widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

Bishop W. H. Heard of Monrovia, Liberia, a special speaker, told of the work being done by the women and the church in West Africa, especially in Sierra Leone and in Liberia. In Liberia, Bishop Heard said, the African M. E. church has twenty-one charges and two presiding elders, and he stated that he is here on a furlough trying to raise a special fund for greater work there. Bishop Heard thanked the women for having raised $5,000 for foreign work last year.

The Rev. Dr. W. W. Beckett, who heads the missionary department of the African M. E. church, spoke on "Gospel Medicants." The work was commended by Bishop Gaines, Miss Marie Carter, who is representing the Quarterly Review, and Dr. J. C. Caldwell of the Allen C. E. league.

Bishop Gaines announced the following appointments for the Long Island district: Presiding elder, the Rev. Joseph Stiles; Amityville, the Rev. T. H. Lawrence; Bridge street, the Rev. A. R. Morton; Little Neck, the Rev. Thomas Chase; Roslyn, the Rev. J. E. Peterson; St. James, Brooklyn, the Rev. S. H. Haler; Metropolitan, Manhattan, the Rev. F. S. Fale; Flushing, the Rev. C. J. Lawton; Payne Memorial, the Rev. R. P. Pierce; Glen Cove, the Rev. J. M. Proctor; St. John's, Brooklyn, the Rev. W. H. Boulden; Huntington, the Rev. W. F. Coffee; Bethel chapter, Manhattan, the Rev. S. B. Morris; Roseville and Stapleton, the Rev. L. W. De Shields; Bayshore, the Rev. W. J. Wilson; Freeport, the Rev. S. J. Branch; Westbury, the Rev. L. S. Sands.

Personality of the Hon. J. B. Foraker. Hon. Joseph B. Foraker, who so gallantly led the battle for even handed justice for the Negro soldiers in the "battle at Brownsville," is still among the living, says the Dallas (Tex.) Express. His life is a benediction to prejudice cursed America. Long may he live. His very presence is an eloquent appeal for human rights.

Sermon to Patriotic Organizations. Major Martin R. Delaney circle, No. 122, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, and General J. B. Switzer camp, No. 98, Sons of Veterans, assembled in large numbers at Brown chapel, A. M. E. church, Pittsburgh, on Sunday evening, May 29.

The occasion was the annual sermon of the organizations, which was preached by the Rev. Dr. W. H. H. Butler, who is himself a veteran of the civil war.

CAUGHT TIME
BY FORELOCK*Southern Man Who Knows How to Make Business.*MEMBER OF MANY SOCIETIES.

Activities of Norman B. Sterrett of Charleston, S. C., in the Business Life of New York—Partner of the Late Charles H. Graves Now Controls Several Establishments.

Business enterprises among Afro-Americans in New York have greatly increased within the past few years. The spirit of self help seems to have become more largely diffused among our young men from the south than ever before.

At one time the prevailing opinion among most persons was that the majority of our young men from the south only go into the large cities of the north for a good time. But the multiplicity of business establishments in New York owned and controlled by southern men is an evidence that this opinion is not entirely true.

There is room for improvement, however, but we must give credit to those who are making good. With the large number of our people coming up from the south after year there is no reason why business concerns operated by our thrifty and enterprising men should not succeed.

In the ranks of those who are bringing things to pass along this line is

NORMAN B. STERRETT.

Norman B. Sterrett, who is a native of Charleston, S. C. He is a graduate of Avery Normal institute at Charleston and also a former student of Howard university, Washington.

Having completed his course as an embalmer, Mr. Sterrett took the examination of the state board of New York for undertakers and embalmers, which he passed with a high average. The first opportunity which presented itself to him by which he might engage in his chosen profession was with the late Charles H. Graves, at 304 West Forty-first street, with whom he was associated as business partner.

Upon the death of Mr. Graves, Mr. Sterrett, by purchase, became the sole proprietor of the business and has since been very successful. He has recently enlarged the business to the extent of two branch offices, one at 232 West Sixty-first street and another at 56 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. Being of an affable and genteel disposition, with a natural adaptation for business, he has won a host of friends.

Mr. Sterrett is a member of a large number of secret, benevolent and social organizations. As an Odd Fellow he has risen to the position of past noble father and in the Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and the Order of St. Luke's his influence is of the most helpful kind.

Few men in New York have made such wonderful progress in business within such a short time as Mr. Sterrett has. He represents the aggressive side of business life. Competent, obliging and efficient as he is, his future is indeed bright and promising.

Commencement at Downingtown. At the commencement exercises of the Downingtown Industrial school at Downingtown, Pa., which occurred on Tuesday, May 24, the Rev. Dr. A. Clayton Powell of New York delivered the address to the graduating class. Much favorable comment was heard concerning the fine record which the class made and also from the fact that the male members of the class outnumbered the females more than three to one.

South Carolina Baptists Prosperous. At the recent annual Baptist state convention of South Carolina, which met in Spartanburg, the financial report showed receipts from all sources to the amount of $12,000. The convention covers a large territory, and the fiscal year, which closed with the Spartanburg session, was one of the most prosperous in the history of the Baptist work in the state.

WHERE THE MONEY GOES.

Secret Societies Furnish Working Capital For Business Institutions.

Secret organizations of large means should not be satisfied with simply fulfilling their ritualistic obligations. Instead of hoarding up money with which to pay sick dues and death claims they should use some of their money for the purpose of making larger revenue.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars are paid annually by Negro institutions in rents. Similar amounts are put into banks and trust companies for safe keeping. Only a small per cent is paid by these institutions which use our people's money as a working capital with which to run their business.

It is indeed time to call a halt on such a course. We should build halls for ourselves. The right kind of a building would pay for itself in rental within a few years if properly managed.

Business Concern Gives Banquet.

The banquet which was given by the Douglas Loan and Investment company at Witt's catering establishment, Pittsburgh, on Thursday evening, May 26, was a magnificent affair. The officers of the company are H. Anderson, president; Dr. G. G. Turley, vice president; Attorney W. H. Stanton, secretary, and Captain C. W. Posey, treasurer.

MU-SO-LIT CLUB
DINES NOTED MEN*Red Letter Night For Popular Social Organization.

Clarence Cameron White Charms Brilliant Audience With the Violin. While Cole and Johnson Expatriate on the Future of the Negro on the Stage and in the World of Music.

The May meeting of the Mu-So-Lit club, the most representative club in Washington, was one of the liveliest and most interesting meetings in the history of the club.

The guests of honor were Clarence Cameron White, the noted violinist, who recently returned from a two years' course of study abroad, and Messrs. Cole and Johnson, leading men in the "Red Moon" company.

Other guests from the "Red Moon" company were Professor H. Lawrence Freeman, the musical director; H. Arthur Talbot, eleventhist, and Messrs. Frank Fowler Brown and S. Lucas, vocal soloists.

Sam Crocker, manager of the company, gave a brief address.

Mr. White rendered two selections on the violin, which charmed his audience beyond expression. A musical critic of much ability has described Mr. White's playing as follows: "Clarence White's playing gave very clear evidence of serious and faithful study during his two seasons abroad."

"His tone is much clearer and more beautiful, and his technique is broader and more sufficient."

Mr. White has a delightful presence, and his playing is no less charming.

Robert Cole, known throughout theatrical circles as Bob Cole, gave an interesting and instructive talk on "The Future of the Negro on the Stage." Mr. Cole went into the philosophy of the play and the history of the stage and showed clearly that he is a master of the drama in all of its varied sides.

His reminiscences were full of interest, and the personal contact that he has had with leading dramatists and dramatic critics shows that he is a factor in the theatrical world.

J. Rosamond Johnson gave a talk of rare merit on "The Negro in the World of Music." His talk showed that he is also a man who has given deep thought and hard study to music. His talk on what is commonly known as "Negro music" was one of the most interesting ever listened to by the club.

He rendered two of his own compositions—a vocal solo, "Lift Gal," and an instrumental solo, an Indian dance. Frank Fowler Brown rendered a vocal solo, and Professor Frieman gave one of his own compositions.

After the musical and literary part of the evening the guests and members of the club repaired to the spacious dining room of Martin's cafe, where a midnight luncheon was served.

The president of the club, Dr. A. M. Curtis, and the chairman of the executive committee, Judge R. H. Terrell, were congratulated for arranging for such an interesting and enjoyable evening.

INTERNATIONAL
UNION SOUGHT*Negroes of the Americas Called Upon For Co-operation.*WEALTH NOT THE ONLY LEVER

Business Concern of Extensive Operations in Panama City in Circular Letter to the Race on Three Continents and the West Indies Says Unite For Common Cause.

The International Trading and Investment company of the republic of Panama was started in the city of Panama in 1907. The company organized with a capital of $25,000. It has met with gratifying success, which is shown by the fact that in less than two years it has paid a dividend of 8 per cent to its stockholders.

The company does a general mercantile business. It has an office and a savings bank and a plantation in Bocas del Toro and agencies in Colon, Jamaica, British West Indies, and Port Limon, Costa Rica.

In a circular letter recently sent out the company says:

"Thus far advanced we now see and recognize that the time has verily come for the Negro of North, South and Central America and the West Indies down to Africa to unite for a common cause. We must command our own ships, making it thereby possible to take our people to and fro to centers of business, health and pleasure. Start industries in all their branches in a large way—mining, dairying, farming and agriculture in its every sense, floriculture and arboriculture and a general exchange. These, with the scholastic advantages derived from the elementary and normal schools, colleges and universities of our race in the homes in the America of the north, are the avenues that will usher us as a race and people into the great halls of the mansion of respect."

"It is right that you should know that the company is in possession of 120,000 hectares of rich lands, and more can be had if the company so desire. The soil is very fertile, the climate is not enervating; neither is there any impenetrable bush, and the place is rich in minerals."

"We sincerely desire to co-operate with you in such an amalgamative manner as to be part and parcel of the Afro-American of the United States of America. We wish you to handle our products and we to handle yours. By uniting farmers of the race (on your side) can come this way—they can also instruct our farmers here in certain technicals unknown to them, and ours in turn can impart to yours certain tropical methods to which they are strangers."

"We can thus create a Negro market and rule the markets of the Americas and West Indies where our people abound and stretching out to Africa. And why should we not control the markets of the Americas and the West Indies, pray?"

"While we are seeking for racial unity, our desire is not merely for the acquirement of wealth. No! It is to bring about in the most noble manner the solution of that problem in which another race wishes to envelop us as in a dark, murky cloud."

The company is represented in the United States by John E. Bruce of Yonkers, N. Y. The officers of the company are T. A. Brown, president; H. A. Box, vice president; E. W. Nix, secretary; E. A. Smith, treasurer.

More About the Discharged Soldiers.

The Cleveland (O.) Gazette says, "Our people the country over ought to protest at once to their national senators and representatives against the gross injustice of the report of the Brownsville court of inquiry in refusing to re-enlist all but fourteen soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry while admitting that it found no soldier guilty."

Appointed Mail Carrier.

Prof. J. M. Benson, formerly of this city, but who has been teaching school at Mt. Vernon, for the past 9 years, was appointed a mail carrier in the Indianapolis office and reported for duty Tuesday. Prof. Benson's resignation as a teacher, after nearly 15 years service, and a very excellent standing as an educator, is somewhat surprising. Mr. and Mrs. Benson have removed to this city for residence.

Club Woman Entertained.

A pleasing feature of the State Federation of Colored Women's clubs, held in this city last week, was the dinner given last Saturday, by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duerson of the Parker House, to the members of the Executive Board and a few invited guests. The following menu was served in courses: cream tomato soup and wafers planked white fish, Irish potatoes, radishes, smothered chicken, candied sweet potatoes, cucumbers, egg corn bread, tomato salad, strawberries and ice cream, assorted cakes, black coffee.

No Drinks Nor Dancing.

In announcing its Monster Musical Cantata and Carnival in the Coliseum at the State Fair Grounds, Wednesday June 22, day and night, the Second Baptist church postively guarantees that no intoxicating drinks nor gambling nor dancing will be permitted on this occasion. For once the colored citizens of Indiana will have the chance to visit the State Fair Grounds and disprove the assertion, that these vices are necessary at a public gathering. If they are essential, then the June Musical and Carnival will fail.

Senator A. J. Beveridge will be the orator of the day, assisted by prominent colored divines and leaders. Plenty of attractions and innocent amusements will be provided for the little folks and the grown-up too. Arrange now for this day off.

Rev. Hersfeld of the Ebenezer church, preached to a large congregation at 3 p. m., and at 7:45 a. m. the auditorium was filled to hear the sweet music rendered by choir. Stop Useless Extravagances. The craving for automobile and taxicab riding, fine clothing and a host of other useless extravagances is keeping the colored man back, says the Portland (Ore.) Advocate. Why not imitate the foreigner who before he learns to speak the English language launches out in some kind of business—bootblack stand, pushcart, fruit stand or something equally humble—and in a few years becomes independently rich and in this manner helps to make a place in the world of affairs for their people.

Cuban Negroes Seek Legal Redress. The Negro situation in Cuba has recently assumed some very important phases. A large number of Negroes who were arrested some time ago have refused to be released on bail, claiming the right of free speech. General Freyre Andrade, secretary to former President Palma, has offered to defend the prisoners in their claim to be heard, and the situation now looks dark for the administration forces.

THE SUNDAY LESSON

Lesson X.—Jesus Walks on the Sea—For June 5, 1910.

DOUBTERS CONVINCED

Golden Text, "Then They That Were in the Ship Came and Worshipped Him, Saying, Of a Truth Thou Art the Son of God" (Matt. xiv, 33)—The Deliverer Comes—Simon Rebuked.
By Rev. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D. D.
The miracle bread is eaten. That is a king worth while. He could feed an army without a base of supplies. The wounded would be healed at a word. The Roman eagles must now surely take their flight. Flash the news over the hills! Let it reverberate over Herod's palace! Jesus is king! What? No? Just modesty, that's all. They will compel him. Other men have refused likely crowns. But look at his face! Looks like the day he came down from the mountain after Satan had offered him the kingdoms of the world. Evidently a crisis is at hand. Yes, he will reign, not from a throne, but a cross. The twelve are ordered aboard ship.

"LORD, SAVE ME"

A Masterless Boat.
He's on the mountain alone at prayer. Great souls seek solitude. If he needed prayer how much must we! The hand of weakness needs grasp the hand of strength. Poverty is invited to the treasure house of wealth. Bring large baskets! Meanwhile the storm has broken on the lake. Simon shouts to John, "Where can the Master be?" He remembers another storm six months ago on this very sea. John doesn't know. He shakes his head as we do when unbelief calls out, "Where is your God?"

There's a flash of lightning. It's the fourth watch of the night, the darkness hour before dawn. God of the fathers, what's that? Phosphorus, token of death! It's the spirit of the sea, a ghost! Sailors are superstitious. No, it's a man! But flesh and blood cannot walk the waves. They cry out in terror. Then a voice calls: "Be of good cheer. It is I. Be not afraid." It's the pilot of Galilee! They had been praying for Jesus. Now he is here. Often we get the things we ask and are amazed when it comes.

A Sinking "Rock."
And Simon, always impulsive, quick to think, quick to act, mighty human, too, first makes Christ a phantom, then rushes in where angels dare not tread. "If he be thou, bid me come." Ahead of the others, Simon, without invitation. However, "Come!" The daring disciple, presumptuous, blundering as a schoolboy, is over the side of the boat. There's a triumphant turn of the head. He isn't looking toward Jesus, neither walking by faith nor by sight. He hears the wind whistle, the dash of the spray against his legs, an apprehensive gasp. His feet slip; he commences to sink; an outflung arm, a tone of terror, "Lord, save me!" Short prayer. Need teaches brevity. "Man's extremity is God's opportunity." Jesus saves! "Wherefore didst thou doubt?" Christ rescued Simon first, rebuked him afterward.

They're back in the boat. They worship him. "Of a truth thou art the Son of God." So said the Father; so said John the Baptist and the disciples and Nathaniel and the Master to Pilate; so says the creed of Christendom through the ages. Say, misguided one, denying his divinity, look again! He is the "Son of God."

Soon they land at Gennesaret. His fame is a flame. "The men of that place" hurry through the countryside to bring the sick within reach of his wonderful power. They throw him and plead to touch but the border of his garment. They touch and by faith are made well. They crowd him today—the faithful, the seekers, the soul hungry—and go away satisfied. They also crowd him—the critics, the self exploiters—and go away, having seen nothing. Thousands crowd him today, interested intellectually only, as in the canals of Mars or the property of radium. They mistake. He is not a wonder. He is a Saviour—not intellect, but heart. He desires not admiration, but love. He came to seek and to save. Of a truth he is the Son of God.
